Los Angeles Charter Leaders,

We are writing with a quick reminder on behalf of Great Public Schools Now (GPSN).

If you are not aware already, GPSN is working with members of the Los Angeles charter community to continue to support and grow ApplyLA, a simple, commonsense application system that makes it easy for Los Angeles families to apply to multiple charter public schools. ApplyLA has helped over 6,000 families submit more than 10,000 applications using a single, common application in its pilot year. Great Public Schools is still accepting interested organizations to join the platform for its second year. If you would like to learn more about how your organization can join the platform, where families can browse and apply to multiple schools in a matter of minutes, please contact Josh Kinoshita from GPSN as soon as possible. Letters of intent to join are due May 15, 2019.

Thanks,

Cassy

Charter schools strengthen California's school system by offering more kids a great public education that puts their needs first. It's time for the Legislature to stand for ALL students! Learn how you can make a difference in the Capitol.
